EUCCHARISTIC CRUSADE
What is the Eucharistic Crusade?

- The Eucharistic Crusade is the mobilization of children's prayers, under the auspices of the ecclesiastical hierarchy with the dual purpose of obtaining the children's sanctification, as well as graces for the need of the Church. It is therefore, a work of piety and a work of apostolate.
How does one enter the Eucharistic Crusade?
- In order to enter the Crusade Father Pfeiffer asks that the child write him a letter asking to be admitted into the Crusade; He will respond with a letter informing them of their admittance. They will be admitted in the promotion ceremony in October.

- Any and all children are invited to the Summer meetings:
 - August 21st: 4pm through Benediction to Compline. (Bonfire, Smores, etc.)
 - September 20th: 8:30– 9am
- Promotions will be in October:
 - Regarding Promotions, the Crusader must also write Father Pfeiffer a handwritten letter requesting a promotion; they will likewise receive a letter in response from Father Pfeiffer

Through the same Christ our Lord.
