ANNOUNCEMENTS

FROM FR. BOYLE
Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your continued generosity. I apologize for asking again for more support. It is my sorrow that I did not push more in the past. Asking for funds is a challenge when I know you are giving so much and are stretched thin in many ways. We commend this project to Our Lady, Help of Christians!

We are at a crossroads — of building or not. Your help is appreciated. If someone has not been able to commit to a certain pledge yet, please do so today — as we need to prove a commitment for about $10-$50 per week per adult. This will help over a loan payment of $4000-5000 per week. If you are able, please complete a pledge card and return to the following email address or place in the alms container before the end of Sunday, the 27th.

Below is the direct link for the capital donations online. This link is better to use than the general BVM church donation page as the other link has fees attached. Cheryl Byrne (<c.byrne@MaterDei.Academy>) can help if you have difficulties or questions.

I know the Pilgrimage is a busy time. Please do not let this duty of ours pass. If you share this with a fellow parishioner and encourage all to help where they can, that will be much appreciated by ALL! The Precept of the Church to tithe is under consideration. Please support your parish today. If we do our part, even if it seems insufficient, another will come along and do his part! I have 100% confidence in this. We are all faced with the reality that challenges, and hurts, but is beneficial to one and all! Thank you for all the work and support. I will offer my 45 miles of walking for your intentions. Please unite under the mantle of Our Lady, the Queen of Martyrs as we walk to her shrine! God bless,

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Richard Boyle, Pastor

BLESSED IMELDA LAMBERTINI
Blessed Imelda Lambertini was born in 1322 in Bologna to devout Catholic parents. She displayed signs of great sanctity from an early age and asked to receive Holy Communion on her 5th birthday. She was denied as the age then was 14. At age 9, her parents allowed her to live with a group of Dominican nuns residing in Bologna at that time. During the next 2 years, the reception of Communion was her one and only desire. It is recorded that upon witnessing the nuns receive the Eucharist themselves, Blessed Imelda once remarked that she was genuinely confused how anyone could receive the Eucharist and not die of pure joy. All her requests to receive were denied. One day, a miraculous event occurred in which the resident priest witnessed a supernatural light emanating from the Blessed Sacrament and falling directly upon the young girl, who knelt quietly in prayer. The priest took this as a sign that it was Our Lord’s wish to be united to Imelda in Holy Communion. She was 11 years old. Upon her reception of the Eucharist, she was left alone in the church to meditate. After a while, the nuns smelled a Heavenly scent and followed it into the chapel and saw Imelda on her knees with a smile on her face. When a nun tapped her on the shoulder, her body collapsed to the floor, lifeless and still smiling. When she was exhumed a few hundred years later, she was found incorrupt. She was beatified in 1826 by Pope Leo XIII and is known as the child saint who died of pure joy upon receiving her First Communion.
